ALL SAINTS
DAY!

HABITS—we all have them.

Today while doing a little “Habits” research I discovered a list that someone with way too much time on their hands put together about odd habits people had told him about. Here are a few of them:

- I always check under my bed with a flashlight before I go to bed.
- Whenever I eat a cold sandwich I won’t eat the last bite, it is like it is tainted or something,, I just can’t do it.
- I sleep with the radio on.
- I eat cereal for dinner almost every night.
- Sheets get re”tucked in” at the foot of my bed each night.
- All my shirts in the closet face the same way.
- I wave good bye when I flush the toilet
- I eat food counter clock-wise on my plate.
- I always have 3 pens in my pocket.
- I always run my dishes through the dishwasher twice.

Key Bible verse from today’s study

• Luke 2:52

Key Habits Idea

That who you and I turn out to be is made up of the grace and gifts we have been given, the commitments we make and the habits we develop.

This is a short list of the odd habits that people shared. What are a few of your habits? Notice I didn’t say odd, because odd is in the eye of the beholder, and remember God is Odd!

Question to Ponder: “Let us not give up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but let us encourage one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.” Hebrews 10:25

What is so encouraging about getting together?

OK So this is getting a little OLD. But in case you haven't noticed I really would like you to bring your own Bible to class with you. Maybe a little incentive would help. Starting next week we will play a game before class called "Cold Hard Cash" in which you will have a chance to win.... Umm... Cold Hard

Cash. But you must have your own Bible with you! To be a part of this game.
